

Some files don't show when linking files

Last revised Monday, 14 September 2009

When linking a file, linkr will only show those with "legal" file extensions as determined by your Joomla! installation. For example, files with the extension .exe won't be listed by default. To edit the files you want to display, update the

Legal Extensions

parameter in

Administrator » Global configuration » System » Media Settings

.