

Why does Linkr only work with SEF turned off?

Last revised Monday, 22 June 2009

While editing your article, your links will look like `"index.php?option=com_..."`. But once you publish it, and you browse to that article in the front end, the link will be replaced by the proper SEF URL automatically.